Methodology

The main sections of this report are based on the analysis of August 2023 virtual inspections data recorded by Little Hinges Pty Ltd, unless otherwise stated. Commentary in this report relating to interstate migration, consumer sentiment and rental behaviour is based on an extrapolation of this data.

A virtual inspection is defined as one unique session or viewing of a virtual tour by an individual. Property markets discussed have a minimum of 1,000 virtual inspections, areas with less virtual inspections than this benchmark have been excluded for data robustness.
